

Club Sponsors
Bob Cat Hunt

The Grayling Sportsmen's Club is sponsoring a bob cat hunt to take place on Saturday and Sunday, February 16 and 17. Those wishing to hunt are urged to register at Hanson's Sporting Goods as early as possible. Dogs and guides will be furnished. The hunt will start at 8:30 A.M. in the morning. Many hunters are expected to come up from southern Michigan for the hunt. A charge of $2.00 per day will be made and after expenses are taken care of, the profit will go towards the Grayling Community Building. The Club is hoping for real success in both the hunt and the amount of money that will be able to turn over to the building fund. All local sportsmen are urged to turn out to register the earliest possible moment.

Kiwanis Club
Notes

Orville V. Walker, County Agent for Crawford and Kalkaska Counties was the speaker at Monday night's meeting of the Kiwanis Club of Grayling. He was introduced by Russell Allen who was in charge of the program.

Mr. Walker who is a member of the board of the new college at Traverse City Northwestern Michigan College and who is to get the agricultural course started there spoke of the founding of the institution and its progress so far.

There are now 80 students at the college which now has assets of about a quarter million dollars.

The institution is unique in that it will have what is commonly known as an "upside down" manner of teaching approach. Any student may take any one or more subjects that he wants, but, is first taught the practical application of the knowledge before classroom work.

Mr. Walker showed colored slides of scenes in Crawford County and around Michigan as well as a number taken on a trip to California where colleges similar to Northwestern Michigan were studied by a six man committee on the coast.

Wilfred Laurent At San Diego Camp

Wilfred R. Laurent son of Mr. William L. Laurent of 502 Huron St., Grayling, Mich., is now undergoing training at the Marine Corps Recruit Depot, San Diego, Calif.

The 19-year-old former Grayling High School student enlisted in the Marine Corps at Detroit, Mich., recently.

During the eight-week "Boot Camp," as recruit training is commonly called, Private Laurent will become well versed in such basic military subjects as precision drill, first aid, Marine Corps history and mission and field tactics.

Three weeks of the training period is spent at the Camp Mathews Rifle Range, situated 15 miles north of San Diego. While there, Private Laurent will fire the .30 caliber Garand rifle, .45 caliber pistol, carbine and Browning Automatic Rifle. He will also receive indoctrination firing with the light and heavy machine guns, 80 and 81 mortars, flame throwers and the latest type boozoaks. Under a newly adopted training program he will also receive instructions in throwing live hand grenades.

Laurent was employed by the Bear Archery Co. in Grayling, Mich., before reporting for service with the Marine Corps.

Upon completion of recruit training he will be granted a 10-day leave and, if he has maintained a good record, will be promoted to Private First Class. He will then be assigned to a Marine post or station for duty or to a Marine Corps School for advance training.

The delegates from Crawford County were Ted Leng from Frederic and LuEllen Watkins from Grayling.

The young people received training in planning a club program for the year, developing demonstrations, planning Club parties and general 4-H Club leadership.

Shirley Jensen Named
Cherry Pie Winner

Mrs. Shirley Jensen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Jensen from Hartwick Pines, was chosen winner of Crawford County Cherry Pie Baking Contest. The contest was held February 26 in the Home Economics room at the Grayling High School.

Shirley, a fifteen year old sophomore at Grayling, will be given an expense free trip to Grand Rapids, February 12 and 13, where she will compete in State honors.

Second place winner of the contest was Marilyn Vincent, Grayling. Other contestants were Margaret Moore, Grayling; Caroline Long, Grayling and JoAnn Lennert, Grayling.

The girls were judged on their methods of handling pie ingredients, the finished product, and also their poise and personality. Judges for the contest were Mrs. Archie Howse, Grayling and Mrs. Fred Lamm, also of Grayling.

Morality In Our National Life

The head of one of the country's leading enterprises recently talked on corruption in high places. He said, "If the corruption which has been exposed is not vigorously attacked on every front, the public will be justified in becoming cynical, and all our cherished American traditions will be jeopardized. Even business cannot long maintain its integrity in a sea of corruption. Only if all the forces for righteousness form together in a supreme effort will we be able to win the battle for restoration of high morality in our national life."

It is not true, as some people seem to believe, that graft petty or otherwise, and various kinds of dishonesty must inevitably be a part of all human undertakings. As the same executive pointed out, "high moral standards do exist and must exist to make possible the efficient production and distribution of $325,000,000,000 worth of goods and services in this country every year." Fraud and commercial bribery are almost nonexistent here, and millions of transactions, some involving large sums, are completed every year without written contracts or formal guarantees. On the stock exchanges, billions of dollars worth of property are bought and sold by a word or a sign, and the agreements are invariably honored. This executive said that his own company has credit sales totaling about $900,000,000 a year to over 1,000,000 different individuals and concerns—yet the bad debt losses over the past five years have averaged only one-fiftieth of one per cent.

Of all forms of corruption, that in government is the worst. And there are many kinds of corruption which are so subtle as to be beyond the reach of the law. The only defense is the honor, integrity and moral standards of the men who we elect and appoint to office.

With Washington in such a hub, even investigating its investigators, the quiet turmoil of Michigan politics is restful as a June zephyr. But even here there are hints of corruption. With the resignation, under fire, of Sidney Phillips of Charlotte as president of the board of managers of state fairs, Michigan took another look at itself.

Phillips, charged with accepting a $300 bribe from a concessionaire at the state fair, faced impeachment proceedings when he threw in the towel.

Meanwhile the legislature was literally working day and night to meet its new deadline. Committee burned the midnight oil to get their bills on the floor. Under rules adopted last session, all bills other than taxation and appropriation measures must be out of committee 21 days after introduction or they were dead.

One bill came in again this year in revised form. It is a new type of "used car tax". The measure, differing from the Higgins bill defeated twice before, would impose a 3 percent specific tax on the sale of used cars through licensed dealers. Thus, it would exempt so-called isolated sales—those between individuals—a feature of the previous measure.

Another rumor is extant that Gov. Williams again is keeping an eye on the vice-presidency. Observers swear on a stack of government manuals that the governor's ears are getting cauliflowered from keeping them to the ground—especially if Kefauver gains in strength. But, each observation is still just a rumor.

Somewhat more tangible in the political world was the visit of Arthur E. Summerfield of Flint, national G.O.P. committeeman. He held a 45-minute peacemaking session with a group of rebellious legislators over his reputed hostility to the U. S. senatorial candidacy of John B. Martin, Jr., editor general.

Summerfield emerged from a closed-door meeting with 28 house Republicans, his grip on the party reins still secure. Said Summerfield, apparently smoothing down the ruffled backides of the 28 Republicans, "I never have taken the position that any candidate is unacceptable, including Mr. Martin."

State Treasurer D. Hale Brake recently blistered the "Little Rover" commission, which has advocated more power for the governor. In reply to Loren B. Miller, research director for the commission, who had called the governmental set-up a "hodge-podge" a Chinese puzzle stemming from fear of the executive, Brake said flatly, "Miller has read too darn many books. I have known too many governors."

Prof. C. R. Hoglund, MSC agricultural economist, believes it is possible by 1955 to raise Michigan milk production by 10 percent, red meat production by 8 percent and poultry and turkey meat production by 15 percent over the 1950 level. He says better cropping practices could boost production of feed grain by 5 percent along with a 10 percent rise in hay and pastures.

Prof. Hoglund also sees a possibility for 10 percent rise in corn yields and production gains of 10 to 25 percent for other crops if Michigan farmers make more extensive use of fertilizer.

Ford Motor company's present defense contracts total $1,800,000,000. The company expects to employ 40,000 workers and use 11,000,000 square feet in defense work alone.

Oil and gas operators plan to drill 711 new wells in Michigan in 1952, compared with 746 wells completed in 1951. The forecast is based on drilling schedules of oil companies and individual operators and show that the new wells will be divided into 345 wildcats, seeking new pools, and 386 developed wells in known fields.

Last year, of the 746 completed wells, 223 were successful in finding oil, 20 hit natural gas, 46 were sunk as service wells in older fields and 437 were dry.

The Michigan Inter-Industry Highway Safety committee has given Michigan State college $10,000 for salary and expenses of a professor in driver education, the first in the country, who will give special courses to high school driver education teachers throughout the state.

Dr. Arthur Bromage, University of Michigan political science professor who became an Ann Arbor alderman to test his theories, reviews his experience in a new book, "A Councilman Speaks."

A Mississippi Flyway council has been organized. Composed of Michigan and 13 other states, it is designed to gear closer the shooting season and bag limits to the annual harvestable duck surplus. This will be the first time representative sportsmen and conservation officials will be meeting regularly to consider duck problems on an entire flyway basis.

The state senate affairs committee has killed a bill which would have required Michigan State College and the University of Michigan to televise home sports contests.

One ride and You'll say:

"That's the Smartest Million Dollars BUICK Ever Spent"

WHEN we tell you that every 1952 Buick rides like a million dollars, we're not just slinging slang—we're talking real money—right 'n the barrelhead cash.

A million dollars and more were poured into research and testing—design and tools—engineering, production and components—to team up the combination of ride features you'll find on a Buick—and on no other car in the world.

A million dollars and more was the price paid to work out control of end-over-end and side-roll on curves—to double-check vertical "throw" with shock absorbers and big soft-acting coil springs for all four wheels—to V-brace the torque-tube keel and X-brace the frame—to cushion body and engine—and to silk out the whole operation with Dynaflow Drive.*

You may not care how the job was done, or what it cost. But we'll lay you this: You're going to say "thanks a million" to Buick engineers once you get this spirited smoothie under your hands and haunches.

Old familiar roads take on a new smoothness. Gone are the weave and wander, the jitter and jounce that you've felt in lesser cars. You ride with road-hugging assurance and level ease.

All of which only begins to tell you what really great cars these 1952 Buicks turned out to be.

Never before have style and stamina—comfort and character—power, performance and price been brought together with such satisfying skill.

The obvious thing for you to do is come in and look them over. How about taking half an hour off to do that—today?

Equipment, accessories, trim and models are subject to change without notice. *Standard on ROADMASTER, optional at extra cost on other Buicks.

From where I sit... by Joe Marsh

Experienced Hand Wanted

Cappy Miller's back from visiting relatives and tells about a big snow storm that knocked out the electric power for miles around.

Naturally, the local power company was doing everything possible to restore service but folks kept calling in and one woman gave them a new twist.

"I don't mind not having lights," she grumbled, "but I've got 20 cows in my barn and they all have to be milked by machine. Nobody around here knows how to milk a cow by hand any more."
